

BEPI SPERANZA

After studying Law, he graduated in Composition, Orchestral Conducting, and Choral Conducting from the "N. Piccinni" Conservatory in Bari. As a conductor, he has performed over 800 concerts in Italy, Great Britain, France, Germany, Austria, and Tunisia, and has recorded for RAI (Eurovision), Radio France, the BBC, and for the record companies Saidera in Tokyo, Spalax in Paris, and Mediasat in Milan. He collaborated on the production of "Messa di Orfeo," a live performance by Florian Fricke (composer of the soundtracks for W. Herzog's films). He composes symphonic, chamber, and sacred music, as well as soundtracks for short films and incidental music for the theater. His works have been performed in Italy and abroad. He teaches at the "N. Piccinni" Conservatory of Music in Bari.